

The criteria of Nietzsche's evaluation for all and any moral

Mariana Lins Costa*

Abstract:

Nietzsche affirms the existence of different types of moral which, at the same time, express different values: certain moralities are considered superior to others. Within this article, we will aim to find and question the criterion that allows the philosopher to value the different morals.

Keywords: Moral; Genealogy; Will to power.

* Doutoranda em filosofia na Universidade Federal da Bahia, Salvador, BA, Brasil. Bolsista da Fapesb. Contato: marianalins@hotmail.com